Table 2: Issue Descriptions and Resolutions

Zendesk Ticket IDs	Internal ID	Issue Title	Issue and Resolution Details
384225	NSD-10545	Issue selecting criteria in the Signoff Option for the Task learning type.	There was an issue when attempting to select criteria for the Signoff Option step for Task learning modules. Selecting individual users worked, but adding dynamic criteria such as Role or Organization was not working properly. This has been corrected.
383770, 383816	NSD-10511	R139 Report - Issues with modules that have equivalencies	When a user has completed both a module assigned to a competency as well as the "substitute" as defined in Equivalency Rules, the report was not showing the primary module correctly. This has been corrected.
382721	NSD-10448	Issue with exam module being	This applies to customers with a CFR license which enables electronic marked failed despite additional attempts available.	signature.The course completion esignature facility is always made available even when the course is not ready to be marked complete, for ex. like remaining attempts for the user to redo the course.This has been fixed to check criteria before making the facility available.

381994	NSD-10409	Exams showing N/A in section navigation despite questions being answered.	This applies to exams using the "Allows Section/Question Navigation" setting.The exam question status is stored in the cache (in memory), but there are some conditions where this can get out of sync during an exam attempt.While the questions that were answered, and saved in the database, there would be an issue until the cache is rehydrated.This issue has been fixed.
382105, 382114, 382175, 382183, 382222, 382708, 383622, 383641	NSD-10405	Tasks disappearing from approval queue	For some customers, tasks that were pending approval were disappearing from the queue for the designated approvers.To correct for this, a new daily task will review the transcripts for task and ensure the approval process is restored correctly, showing the pending approval.
